“How To Share Your Faith Effectively”

Evangelism Style Questionnaire

(Use the scoring sheet for recording your answers.)

1. Normally when talking to others I approach topics directly and rarely beat around the bush.
2. I catch myself using stories and illustrations in order to help others to understand God's plan of salvation.
3. To be honest not sharing my faith with others verbally hasn't been something that bothers me greatly.
4. I enjoy reading up on topics to gain a better understanding before talking to others about spiritual things.

5. I do not shy away from asking the tough questions of individuals when it seems necessary.
6. I enjoy telling others about my faith and don't mind talking about the Lord in public places.
7. I feel for the lost and the unchurched, however, I don't catch myself talking with them often.
8. Before I share Christ with another, I want to know exactly what I should say.

9. I don't mind confronting my friends with God's truths even if it adversely affects our relationship.
10. When I tell people of how I came to Christ they seem to be interested in hearing my story.
11. The thought of verbally sharing with another person about Christ is really very difficult for me.
12. During conversations I think about the issues that are holding up a person's spiritual progress.

13. I feel that real love often means telling someone the truth even if it may hurt them.
14. At times I have intentionally shared my mistakes with others to help them relate to the solutions I have found.
15. I prefer to show love through my actions rather than just my words.
16. I have a tendency to be very logical in presenting biblical facts when talking about my faith with others.

17. I sometimes catch myself expressing my strong "convictions", even though sometimes I am misunderstood.
18. Talking about God and spiritual things comes easily for me especially in social settings.
19. I feel that my quiet and wholesome lifestyle speaks to those whom I am around more than my words.
20. I usually think through my plan before seeking to share my faith with another.

21. Sometimes I think I get myself into trouble for lacking gentleness and sensitivity to others.
22. When I share stories from my life, people seem truly interested.
23. The thought of having a friend not like me because of sharing Christ with them frightens me greatly.
24. I often get frustrated with people when they use weak arguments or poor logic about spiritual things.

25. I have tried to get my friends to go to church with me, even at the risk of being labeled a religious fanatic.
26. I truly enjoy long talks with friends, especially my unsaved ones.
27. Even though I see needs in people's lives for Christ I have a hard time talking to them about Him.
28. I usually look for a good book to give a seeker friend that may help them with a specific question or need.

29. I see myself as a confident person when it comes to sharing my religious views.
30. I am amazed at how I came to Christ and excited to tell people about it.
31. I find fulfillment in helping others to come to Christ in behind-the-scenes ways.
32. If I were to be honest, making sure my theology is correct is sometimes more important to me than whether the person understands what I am trying to share.

33. I am somewhat of a daring person when it comes to sharing about my conversion experience.
34. I enjoy my many friends and catch myself talking openly about God to them.
35. I have found that my quiet demonstrations of Christian love sometimes make people more receptive.
36. Those with whom I share my faith sense the genuine concern I have for them.
