- ___ 4. To God, our physical bodies are not important according to I Corinthians 6:19.
- ___ 5. Philippians 4:8 is God's guideline for our thought life.
- ___ 6. The wisdom God wants us to have is described as pure, peaceable, gentle, easily entreated, full of mercy, full of good fruits and without hypocrisy and partiality.

How to Live the Christian Life

KEY IDEA;

In the same way, let your light shine before men, that they may see your good deeds and praise your Father in heaven.

Matthew 5:16

Every Christian wants to live a life that will glorify God and be a witness to others. Most of the time people are more impressed with how we live rather than what we say. In this lesson we will study how your Christian life can fulfill the duties to God, duties to others and duties to yourself.

MULTIPLE CHOICE – Underline only the answers that correspond with the scriptural reference listed. All answers are correct and will help you to live a practical Christian life.

1. Romans 12:20 says we are to not only love our friends, but also love: (1) Our family, (2) The poor, (3) Everyone who loves us, (4) Our enemies.
2. John 13:15 says we can learn how to live by: (1) Reading the Bible, (2) Praying every day, (3) Following Christ's example, (4) Being obedient to God.
3. What does John 16:13 say is another source for finding the truth and understanding it? (1) The Bible, (2) Our conscience, (3) Biblical preaching and teaching, (4) The Holy Spirit.
4. Romans 13:5 reminds us that we need to be obedient not only because of God's wrath, but also for our: (1) Conscience sake, (2) Health's sake, (3) Family's sake, (4) Friend's sake.
5. Matthew 5:16 shows that our life and works should be a witness to people so that they will: (1) See how God has helped us, (2) Glorify God, (3) Want to become Christians, (4) Respect what we say.

DUTIES TO OTHERS – Notice how Christ's teachings and the New Testament lift the standard of ethical living higher than the Old Testament.

1. Instead of not killing as Exodus 20:13 commands, 1 John 3:15 states _____
2. Exodus 20:14 commands "You shall not commit adultery"; Matthew 5:28 records Christ's new commandment that we should not _____
3. Exodus 20:3 states "You shall have no other god's before me"; and Romans 12:1-2 says we ought to _____
4. Other commands for our life are found in Romans 12:9-21. List as many as you can here. _____
5. Remember, what you do is as important as why you believe. With faith being what you believe, works being what you do, consider James 2:26. What does it say of faith and works? _____

TRUE AND FALSE – Write "T" for true and "F" for false to show our duties to God.

- _____ 1. In Matthew 22:37-40 Jesus tells us the greatest commandments are, first of all, love the Lord with all they heart. The second greatest commandment is to love your neighbor as your self. All the other commandments are based on these two commands.
- _____ 2. In the Ten Commandments in Exodus 20:1-17, five of them have to do with our duties to God and five of them deal with our duties to fellowmen.
- _____ 3. According to 1 Corinthians 10:31, in whatever a Christian does, he should be able to glorify God in it.

Sometimes in the Christian life there are things that the Bible does not describe as either definitely right or wrong. Perhaps it is a habit or some activity one would like to do. In the following verses you will find some principles for dealing with questionable things in your life.

MATCH the correct statements with the proper scriptural reference. Read and study these principles.
